

Highland Presbyterian Church Louisville

Pastor Nominating Committee

Kevin Burns, co-chair

Kevin, and his wife Kimberlee, have been members at Highland since the early 1990's. He is currently on the Session and has been involved in leadership roles in the congregation in many ways over the years, including serving as chair/co-chair of the Church in the World committee, a previous pastor nominating committee, and a capital campaign. His primary involvement in the past few years has been focused in CE. He is currently chair of the Youth Committee.

Additionally, he teaches youth Sunday School, and serves as a frequent chaperone/youth advisor. When he is not at church, he is the owner of a couple of local companies involved in Architectural Design, Commercial Real Estate Broker- age and Property Management.

Edward Caruthers

Edward Caruthers was born and raised in Louisville, KY. Edward is a professional musician, and in January of this year celebrated his 24th year serving on the music staff at HPC. Edward has worked with the adult, youth, and children's Music Ministries at Highland. In addition to music ministries Edward has served on the Worship Committee and the Transitional Support Team. When he is not teaching or singing, Edward enjoys NCAA Football (ROLL TIDE!), cooking, traveling. and spending time with family and friends.

Patricia Connally

Patricia is a lifelong member of Highland, aside from 9 years living in Charlotte, NC before moving "home" in 2010. She has a background in school social work and education and has stayed home with kids (Amelia, Charlotte, and Thomas), but enjoyed working part-time as a sub at the Weekday School, pre-covid shutdown. She currently serves on the Children's Committee, Fellowship Committee, and VBS Committee and was on the Weekday School Board for about 8 years, with 6 as Chair. She enjoys spending time with her children and husband Brett, hiking, biking, cooking, and reading.

Charlie Fendig

Charlie is 17 years old and a junior at Atherton High School. He currently spends his time running cross country, playing board games with his family, and hanging out with friends. Charlie has been a member of HPC for 5 years and enjoys every moment he spends with the youth group.

Martin T. Hall

Martin is an associate professor in the Kent School of Social Work at the University of Louisville. He has been a member of Highland Pres since 2011, where he has served on the Session, as Chair of Church in the World (2017-2018), and as a member of the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (2013). He is married to Susan Sawning and couple has two children, Harper (14 yrs) and Hugo (8 yrs).

Kelli Klingenfus

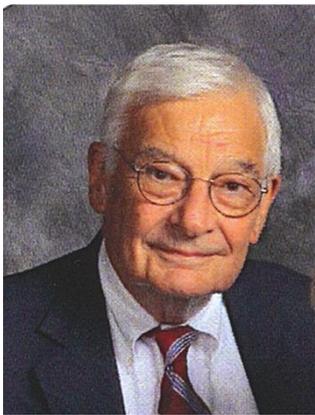

Kelli first attended Highland Presbyterian Church in August of 2014 as an engineering student at the University of Louisville though she has been a lifelong Presbyterian. She quickly started volunteering with the youth program and served as a youth advisor and chaperone for several years before officially joining the church in August of 2018. When Kelli is not working as a mechanical engineer, she can be found playing ultimate frisbee, planning her 2022 wedding, or spending time volunteering with the Highland Pres. Youth. She is looking forward to serving on the Pastoral Nominating Committee and helping Highland discern who our next pastor will be.

Kathy Reed

My name is Kathy Reed and I am pleased to be on the PNC. My husband, Mike, and I have been members at Highland for over 20 years and have enjoyed raising our three children here. (Kathleen, Andrew and Michaela) Currently I am serving as a Deacon and co-leader of WINGS women's group. In the past I have been on Session, helped with children's and youth programs (VBS, Sunday school, Advent, Retreats, Brightside Clean-up). and participated in Mission outreach (KRM, Habitat for Humanity, Project Warm). Church life and outreach are very important to me and I look forward to helping the committee find our next HPC minister.

Tom Reichard

I have been a member of Highland Presbyterian Church since 1966 when I married Mary Stuart Barnes a life-long member of HPC. As an ordained Deacon and Elder I have participated in many activities of HPC. Currently I am an active member of the Personnel and Property committees. As a retired Orthopedic surgeon I am still actively involved in The Greater Louisville Medical Society Foundation, Supplies Overseas, and The Portland Avenue Community Trust. To relax I enjoy woodworking, fishing and working on our farm. We have two sons and five grandchildren who unfortunately live far from here.

Linda Valentine, co-chair

Linda joined Highland after moving to Louisville in 2006 to become Executive Director of the Presbyterian Mission Agency. At HPC, she served a term on Session, was a co- chair of the capital campaign, served on two transitional and one associate pastor nominating committees and is currently on the Adult Education Committee and co- facilitator of the Race Equity Task Force. Since 2015, Linda has been a volunteer for a number of non-profit organizations in Louisville and a docent at the Speed Art Museum. Prior to moving to Louisville, Linda was a corporate lawyer and executive and an investment fund manager for an international microfinance organization. Linda and Chris have three adult children who live in other cities and with whom they love to travel.
