

Fellowship Notes – December 6, 2022

Members present: Alex Nowak, Todd Brown, Ralph Bowling

Staff Present: Megan McCarty

No action items for session.

Old Business:

Progressive Dinner

Todd will gather supplies – cups, plates, napkins, tables cloths, decorations, etc. and load them up in her cart for Wayne to bring over on Friday.

We cannot get into the space until 2:00 pm on Saturday. Fellowship committee will arrive at 3:00 to set up tables and decorations.

Ralph will get a case of wine to start off the event, hopefully folks will bring their own.

Ralph got bartender and will follow up with them on Thursday. Clyde is handling the insurance piece for us to be able to serve alcohol and not be sued.

Christmas Caroling

Sunday, December 18th, 5:00 pm. Megan will build fire while folks go up and down Everett caroling. Ralph will buy s'more supplies. Hot water and hot chocolate packets will need to be set out.

New Business:

New Member Class

Megan and Nolan will teach a new member class (there has been a lot of inquiry from folks about wanting to become members) on Sunday, January 22nd after worship. We will get Jimmy John's boxed lunches.

Wednesday Night Dinner

Will resume on January 18th at 5:00 pm. We will have breakfast for dinner to keep things simple. We need clean up and cooking volunteers.

Coffee Hour Crèche

Steve Makela came up with the awesome idea of having families set up their crèche scenes in the fellowship hall on Saturday, January 7th and then have an extended coffee hour for folks to look and enjoy cookies and doughnuts. More details to come.

Next Meeting: Wednesday, January 4th at 5:30 pm.
